

A Career Opportunity in The Healthcare & Financial Services Business:

Thank you for taking the time to investigate this sales and marketing opportunity. We believe the time you spend will prove worthwhile.

Are you looking for an opportunity to make a great living while providing real value to your clients and their families? Do you seek a creative position that requires outstanding entrepreneurial and communication skills? Are you capable of setting and achieving your sales goals with little oversight? Do you want to earn a significant income your first year while developing a long term residual income ? If you can say yes to these questions then we need to talk!

Hello my name is Todd Marley, CEO with Americas Benefit. I have been in this industry for 30 years and can tell you it has met and exceeded my expectation ten times over. I have been blessed with the opportunity to hire and train many quality men and women over the years, some of which are independently wealthy as a result of this business.

If you possess the drive, ambition and desire it takes to succeed, then we can help you excel in this industry. Email your resume to me at todd@americasbenefit.com or call my office for a brief but informative phone interview at 724.884.1498

I wish you well,

Todd Marley—Chief Executive Officer
